What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer-FAIR; Blue-RAIN or SNOW With Black ABOVE-'twill WARMER grow. If Black's BENEATH-COLDER 'twill be; Unless Black's shown-no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a eriod of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock-morrow evening.

Just where the brook and river met She stood with shy, reluctant feet; Her little shoes were getting wet— Her russet shoes so trim and neat.

I ventured for to question her—
"Why do you thus so patient wait?"
"I'm posing for a kodak, sir:
I am a sweet girl graduate."

Personal Points

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Miss Katie Blatterman was in Cincinnati Monday.

J. W. Fitzgerald took in the Latonia races Monday.

Mrs. Ben B. Poyntz has gone to Nashville to visit relatives.

H. E. Frost of The Ripley Bazoo called on THE LEDGER yesterday.

P. J. Murphy the jeweler spent Monday in Cincinnati on business. Dr. Harry S. Wood of Cincinnati spent Sunday here with his parents.

Miss Julia Leach of Chattanooga is the guest of Miss Belle Barkley.

Hop. William H. Cox returned last evening from Washington City.

Jack Hanley of Bourbon county is here on a visit to friends and relatives.

Miss Katie Ross is visiting the family of Captain Val P. Collins of Newport.

William Thomas of Chillicothe, O. came in last evening to see his wife and Miss Alberta Caldwell of Mayslick is visiting Miss Elizabeth Jefferson at Lexington.

George Schreder, of the Keith-Schredder Harness Company, was in Cincinnati Monday.

worthy citizens, called on The Ledger over $2,000,000. vesterday.

the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of for injuries sustained by being struck in West Fourth street.

Misses Mattie Forman, Lillie Smoot and guests of Miss Jennie Wood. Contraction .

Mrs. Sedden and her two daughters, Misses Mary and Lucy, have gone to spend a few days at their old country is the guest of Miss Lucy Wadsworth at Lexington, is much improved in health since her stay in that city.

Rees Davis of the Mt. Gilead neighbor hood was in the city yesterday. He was accompanied home by his brother George W. Davis, aged 80, who is here on a visit from Union county.

IRELAND has nearly 1,500 Knights Tem

KENTUCKY Masonic Home has nearly 200 orphans in its care.

In some Oblo counties the apple crop is pronounced an entire failure.

WALTER CONNERS, the bank sneak captured at Cynthiana and taken to Easton. Pa., has been convicted.

REMEMBER, THE LEDGER prints "Help Wanted." "Lost." " Found," and similar on day of publication.

ticeship at the printing business in this city, is seriously ill. THE wheat crop of Central Ohio is fully She Had a Member on the Committee That up to last year's, and the crop of 1891 was extraordinarily good. PRESIDENT HARRISON and David Swing. the great Chicago preacher, were classmates at Mjami University.

THE Ironton papers say there will be an electric street car line run from Ironton to Coalgrove in the near future.

THE next meeting of the Kentucky State Teachers' Association will be held at Paducah, June 28th, 29th and 30th. SATURDAY Fayette county added fou to the resident population of Frankfort.

They are "at home" in the penitentiary. THE curbing for the new gutter from Limestone street to the Christian Church is on the ground, and the gutter will be built at once.

MRS. LUCY A. KEITH has contributed to the Infirmary Library a valuable collection of magazines, novels and miscellaneous works.

THE grand jury at Vanceburg completed the business before it and was discharged Saturday. Only four indictments were reported.

Monday was the last day for paying taxes in Cincinnati, and is estimated that more than a million dollars were received by the Treasurer. EARLY WORICK, the accommodating clerk at the Postoffice, was surprised yesterday by receiving a large and elegant bouquet. He returns his Sunday thanks.

CAPTAIN M. C. HUTCHINS has secured a pension for William H. Fowler of $12 a month from August 6th, 1890, and Milton McCarthey of Murphysville, $12 a month from December 2d, 1891

A. W. BLAIR, at one time prominent as a Republican in Nicholas county politics, died suddenly at his home in that county last night.

EX-SPEARER REED'S convention costume consisted of a blue serge sack suit. a blue negligee shirt, a flowing blue cravat, yellow shoes, a white straw hat and a yellow leather belt. No wonder he was surrounded by ladies.

Lexington, has made Louisville his home | Nebraska; George F. Cruft, New Hampshire; and will engage in private practice there. Until recently Dr. Chenault was Medical | William H. Robinson, North Dakota; William Superintendent of the Eastern Kentucky McKinley, Ohio; Charles M. Donaldson, Lunatic Asylum, and of High Oaks Sanitarium at Lexington.

KENTUCKY was represented at the National Democratic Convention by having Hon. Henry Watterson on the Committee on Resolutions, Charles Rhodes on Credentials, and General John B. Castleman on Permanent Organization. Thomas H. Sherley will probably be Kentucky's representative on the National Committee.

THE Court of Claims has dismissed the case of the Morse Arms Company against the United States, on the general ground that it had no legal standing. This was a test case involving the question of the Government liability for alleged infringement of Mr. George W. Morse's invention Josh H. DeBell, one of Fleming's most for breech loading srms to the extent of

In the case of Louis Eckert against the Mrs. Judge W. P. Coons of Augusta is Newport Rolling Mill for $5,000 damages the head with a rock by a fellow-employe. from the effects of which the plaintiff came very near dying, the defendant was Edna Hunter of this county are the called, and failing to answer the petition was taken for confessed, and a jury awarded to assess damages.

M. P. REDMOND and M. A. Swift left to-day for Toronto, Canada. They go as delegates to represent Commandery No. 89 at the annual convention Miss Annie Whitaker of this city, who Knights of St. John. The boys expect to have a good time while out. They go over the Big Four R. R., by the Lake Shore Route via Cleveland and Buffalo, taking in the Niagara Falls, and return via New York.

> THE Board of Administration of Cincinnati having declared the necessity for new water-works for the city, Mayor Mosby has appointed July 20th as the date for the ratifying election, and named the four Water-works Commissioners, as provided by the enabling act of the Ohio Legislature. The Commissioners are Dr. r. W. Gradson and A. Howard Hinkle, Republicans, and Henry Haacke and Dr. Prendergrast, Democrats.

And now the universal metal craze, as result of which we are gradually becoming bound and rivited together with silver and gold, has decended even to our feet, and adjustable tips and heels of these precious metals are furnished "to fit any shoe." The tips are elaborately notices not of a business character, free carved and chased and are the size of an of charge. The only thing we require is ordinary patent leather tip. The silver that the copy he sent in before 9 o'clock ones average $5 a pair in price, and the gold plated ones $6 or $7 a pair.

EMILE FREY, who served his appren- OLD MAYSVILLE WAS THERE, there was applause, and at its conclusion the Notified President Harrison.

Maysville was especially honored in having a representative on the Committee that met in Washington City to Monday to notify Benjamin Harrison of his renomination for the Presidency by the Minneapolis Convention.

Hon, William H. Cox enjoyed that distinction, and the compliment came to him unexpectedly and without solicitation. The Committee met in the parlors of the Ebbitt House at noon Monday, and in the absence of Chairman McKinley the meeting was called to order by Hon. Elliott F. Shepard of New York.

Before the roll-call of states was completed. however, Governor McKinley arrived, and his coming was productive of great cheering.

The call having concluded, Mr. Shepard extended an invitation to those present to become the guests of the Manhattan Athletic Club of New York on Tuesday evening, 21st inst., which was unanimously accepted. He also furnished each person with a platform ticket for the great ratification meeting at Carnegie Music Hall, New York, the same eve-

At 1 o'clock, under the lead of Governor McKinley, the Committee started for the White House, and five minutes later it was in the East Room, where many prominent ladies and gentlemen; had! gathered. Among those most conspicuous were Justice Harlan of the United States Supremel Court, Senators Proctor, Sherman, Cullom, Casey, Sawyer, Platt and Hawley, Representatives Burrows, O'Donnell and Dalzell, Gen. R. N. Bachelder, Colonel Whitfield, First Assistant Postmaster General: Gen. Spaulding, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury; Fourth Auditor Lynch, Fred Douglass, General Green B. Raum, Commissioner of Pensions; Sergeant-at-Arms Valentine of the Senate, Chief Clerk C. W. Johnson of the Senate, Captain William M. Meredith, Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing; Rev. T. S. Hamlin, D. D., Pastor of the President's church; Appointment Clerk Tanner of the Interior Department, and L. T.

Michener. The Committee of Notification, which was formed in the shape of a horseshoe-The heels touching the corridor entrance-was composed of the following named representative Republicans: Charles O. Harris, Alabama; C. A. Felton, California; Hosea Townsend, Colorado; M. C. Buckley, Connecticut; G. W. Marshall, Delaware; J. A. Sparm, Florida; C. C. Winbish, Georgia; F. T. Dubois, Idaho; Jamest N. Gilbert, Illinois; J. B. Holman, Indiana; C. W. Mullan, Iowa: Calvin Hood, Kansas: William H. Cox. Kentucky: Andrew Hero. Louisiana: R. B. Mallett, Maine: Alex. Shaw. Maryland; William Cogswell, Massachusetts; Dexter M. Ferry. Michigan; Samuel Shell, Minnesota; S. S. Matthews, Mississippl; Charles C. Bell, Missouri; Andrew Gleeson, District of Columbia; M. W. Stewart, Arizona; DR. ROBERT C. CHENAULT, formerly of F. S. Genning, Indian Territory: Atlee Hart, New York: Henry Cheatham, North Carolina: Oregon; Alexander Furnham, Pennsylvania; Samuel P. Colt, Rhode Island; E. H. Deas, South Carolina: Alexander C. Johnson, South Dakota; R. F. Hoyt, Tennessee; Wilbur F. Crawford, Texas; William R. Page, Vermont; Rdgar Allen, Virginia: William Kirkman, Washington; George M. Bowers, West Virginia: Thomas M. Blockstock, Wisconsin.

The President soon appeared, followed by members of the Cabinet, and was received with applause. Mr. McKinley stepped forward, greeted him and spoke as follows:

President Harrison, this committee, repre senting every state and territory in the Union, is here to perform the trust committed to it by the National Republican Convention which convened at Minneapolis on June 7th, 1892, of bringing you official notification of your nomination as the Republican candidate for President of the United States. We need hardly assure you of the pleasure it gives us to corre ident of the United States. We need hardly assure you of the pleasure it gives us to convey this message from the Republicans of the country to their chosen leader. Your nomination was but the registering by the convention of the will of the majority of the Republicans of the United States, and has been received in every quarter with profound satisfaction. In 1888 you were nominated after a somewhat prolonged struggle, upon a platform which declared with clearness the purposes and policies of the party if intrusted with power, and upon that platform you were elected President.

You have been the head and in which you have borne a most conspicuous part. If there has been failure to embody into law any one of those purposes or policies it has been no fault of yours. Your administration has more than justified your nomination four years ago and the confidence of the people implied by your election.

and the confidence of the people implied by your election.

After one of the most careful, successful and brilliant administrations in our history, you receive a renomination, furnishing an approval of your work, which must bring to you the keenest gratification. To be nominated for a second term upon the merits of his administration is the highest distinction which can come to an American President.

The difficult and embarrassing questions which confronted your administration have been met with an ability, with a fidelity to duty and with a lofty patriotism which fill American hearts with glowing pride. Your domestic policy has been wise, broad and statesmanlike: your foreign policy firm, just and truly American. These have won the commendation of the thoughtful and conservative, and the confidence of your countrymen; irrespective of party, and will, we believe, insure your triumphant election in November.

wember.

We beg to hand to you the platform of principles unanimously adopted by the convention which placed you in nomination. It is an American document. Protection, which shall serve the highest interests of American labor and the highest interests of the highe the highest interests of American labor and American development; reciprocity, which, while seeking the world's markets for our surplus products, shall not destroy American wages or surrender American markets for products which can be made at home; honest money, which shall rightly measure the labor and exchange of the people and cheat nobody; honest elections, which are the true foundation of all public authority; these principles constitute for the most part the platform of principles to which you have already by word and deed given your earnest approval, and of which you stand to-day the exponent and representative.

which you stand to-day the exponent and representative.

Other matters treated of in the platform will have your careful consideration.

I am bidden by my associates, who come from every section of the Nation, to assure you of the cordial and hearty support of an harmonicus and united Republican party.

In conclusion, we desire to extend to you our personal congratulations, and to express our gratification at the rare honor paid you by a renomination, with a firm faith that the declinies of this great people will be confided to your care and keeping for another four years.

outburst was prolonged considerably.

Before the handelapping has ceased the President put on his glasses andeproduced a little roll of manuscript. From this he read the following reply, which showed him to be of the people, with the people and for the peo-

Governor McKinley and Gentiemen of the Committee, when, four years ago, on the anniversary of the Deciaration of our National Independence, a committee designated by the Republican National Convention held in Chicago came to my home in Indianapolis to notify me of my nomination for the Presidency, my sense of gratitude, great as it was, was forced into the far background by an overwhelmning sense of the responsibility of leadership in a civil contest that involved so much to my country and to my fellow-citizens. I could not hope that much would be found, when the record of a quiet life had been brought under the strong light of public criticism, to enthuse my party followers or upon which an assurance of adequacy for the highest civil affairs might be rested. No one so much as I realized that the strength of the campaign must be found in Republican principles, and my hope was that nothing in life or word of mine might weaken the appeal of our American policies to the American heart. That appeal did not fail. A Republican President and Vice-President and a Republican Congress were chosen.

The record has been made and we are now Governor McKinley and Gentlemen of the President and a Republican Congress were chosen.

The record has been made and we are now to submit it to the judgment of a patriotic people. Of my own relation to the great transactions in legislation and administration, which must be the basis of this judgment, it does not become me to speak.

I gratefully accept, sir, the assurance given by Republican State Conventions and by the National Convention, through you, that no charge of inadequacy or delinquency to principle has been lodged against the administration. [Applause.] The faithful and highly successful work done by the able heads of the Executive Departments and by our Representatives I desire most cordially to acknowledge and commend. The work of the Fifty-first Congress, in which you, sir, bore so conspicuous and so useful a part, will strongly and most beneficially influence the National prosperity for generations to come. [Applause.]

prosperity for generations to come. [Applause.]

The general results of three years of Republican control have, I believe, been highly beneficial to all classes of our people. The home market for farm products has been retained and enlarged by the establishment of great manufacturing industries, while new markets abroad of large and increasing value, long obstinately closed to us, have been opened on favored terms to our meats and breadstuffs by the removal of unjust discriminating restrictions and by numerous reciprocal trade agreements under section 3 of the McKinley bill. [Applause.] These acts of administration and legislation can now fortunately be judged by their fruits. In 1890 it was a conflict of prediction; now our adversaries must face trade statistics and prices current. [Applause.]

But it is not appropriate that I should at this time discuss these public questions. I hope before long to be able by letter to convey to you a more forms! acceptance of the nomination which the National Republican Convention has tendered me, and to declare briefly my reasons for adhering to the declaration of principles adopted by the convention, and which you have so admirably summarized.

tion, and which you have so admirably summarized.

Will you accept, sir, for your associates upon the committee and for the whole body of the great convention whose delegates you are, my profound thanks for this great honor? And will you, sir, allow me to express my most sincere appreciation of the gracious and cordial terms in which you have conveyed this message? this message? Each member of the Committee was now all had been received he invited them to luncheon, he and Governor McKinley leading the way to the State Dining-room. At this juncture Colonel Elliott F. Shepard jumped up on one of the finely upholsterd old Alex. Albert, New Jersey: Elliott F. Shepard, gold brocade chairs and at the top of his voice velled, "Three cheers for Bentamin Harrison

> President of the United States." The cheers were given, Colonel Shepard leading them with a waving handkerchief. Much has been said about the President's haughty and aristocratic manner, but if he possesses these traits they were entirely absent on this occasion. He entered into the spirit of the affair, and there appeared to be a rivalry between himself and the members of his household to the end that his guests might enjoy the occasion to the fullest extent After luncheon the members of the Committee were invited to the North front of the White House, where the group was to be photographed. It was discovered that the President was absent, but in response to a message he promptly appeared and, seated beside Governor McKinley, the author and indorser of America's great Potective system form the central figures of a picture that will be memo rable in the times to come.

Among the most generous contributors to the Infirmary Library is Miss Alice Ficklin, who sends sundry papers and pamphlets.

AT Glasgow, Clarence Burrell killed his mistress. Nellie McGuire, by striking her with a stone, breaking her neck. Burrell was arrested.

It is thirty-three years since R. C. Brown went to Colorado, too poor to pay for the washing of a paper collar. He is now building a $1,500,000 hotel at Denver, and will have a few spare millions left when it is finished and paid for.

DR. H. K. ADAMSON this morning extracted the bullet from Officer Stockdale's side. He bore the operation very well and is resting easy. Strange to say, the bullet showed no signs of impaction whatever, and it still retained the tallows

SCOTT BLEDSOE, colored, formerly of Nashville, stabbed Walker Coleman, colored, during a game of cards at Hopkinsville, inflicting several wounds that may result fatally. They were drinking at the time. Bledsoe was arrested and is in

W. W. JOHNSON & Co., Rheinstrom & Co., and other Cincinnati firms have brought suit to restrain the Queen and Crescent and the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Companies from carrying into effect the new rates of freight on whisky to the South.

A RECENT estimate places the number of women acting as Postmistresses in the United States at 6,332, of which number Throughout the delivery of the address Island and Oklahoma have 10 each.

BRILLIANT SOCIETY EVENTS.

Reception and Dancing Party at the Home of Mrs. J. F. Barbour.

Mrs. J. F. Barbour and Miss Mary Alter Barbour gave a reception yesterday afternoon from five to eight o'clock at their beautiful home on West Second street. The wealth, beauty and fashion of the city, both old and young, gathered to pay their respects, and were charmingly received by the ladies, assisted by numerous friends. The Maysville Orchestra dispensed some of their popular music throughout the evening.

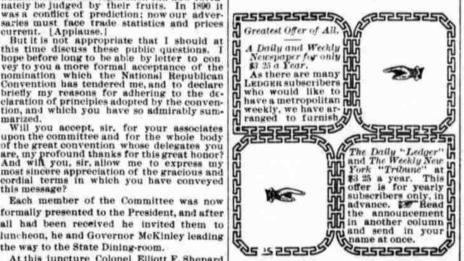

At nine o'clock the same hospitable doors were thrown open to receive the young gentlemen and ladies, who were to pass a delightful evening in dancing. The music was furnished by an orchestra from Cincinnati and every one present seemed to enjoy themselves to their hearts' content.

The following, if none have been omitted, were present:

Misses Ethel Renick, Chillicothe, O., Annie Leathers, Louisville, Julia Hawkins, Mem-Leathers, Louisvine, phis, Tenn., Mattie Forman, Margaret Finch, Alice Higginbotham, Abbie Pickett, Nannie Wood, Jennie Wood, Lillie May Thomas, Rosa Pickett, Hattie Johnson, Sallie Smoot, Bessie Owens Lottie Perrine Anna Frazee, Nettie Robinson, Mary Alter Barbour, Fannie Frazee, Lottie Berry, Messrs-Will Cole,

Messra—
Will Cole,
Horace Cochran,
Oscar McDougle,
Clarence Dobyns,
Harry Barkley,
Stanley Watson,
Mr. Winslow, West Superior, Wis., Mr. McKee,
Terre Haute, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cochran,
Mr. and Mrs. H. Lloyd Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Mannen.

LUCY MOORE, the sixteen-year-old daughter of Dr. Eugene Moore of Amelia, O., has been missing from home since Friday. She is thought to be in Felicity or Batavia.

ALLEN W. McList, a student in the Kentucky School of Medicine, was arrested at Louisville just as he was leaving in a skiff for New Orleans by the way of the falls. He was discouraged by a letler from home and ill success in his

W. H. JANUARY has transplanted two good-sized trees, removing them from the river b nk below the city and placing them in front of the residence of Mrs. Laura A. Collins, Sutton street. Will they live? is the conundrum that will be answered later on.

Louis A. De Line, distiller and inventor, who lived for more than twenty years in St. Louis previous to 1874, died at his home in Frankfort Sunday, aged 78. He was a Frenchman, and had taken part in several revolutions in Paris preceding the dynasty of Louis Napoleon.

THE LEDGER will issue a special edition early on the morning of July 4th. Advertisers will do well to take advantage of this issue, which will be large and unique. Copy must be in hand not later than noon of the 1st.

MRS. JOSEPH KEIM, living near Roann. Ind., undertook to hive a swarm of bees, and a hundred of them stung her. The lady lived two or three hours in intense agony before death came to her relief. Mrs. Keim was very highly respected. being a member of one of the most prominent families in the country.

WE suppose our fellow-citizen Will Cox will continue to speak to his old friends, now that he is back from Washington. It is to be hoped, at least, that he will catalogue the "goodies" under which the table groaned when he put his feet under the President's mahogany in the State Dining-room at the White House Monday.

Excursionists from Ripley.

A party composed of the following young ladies and gentlemen of Ripley were taking in the sights of our city yes-463 are in Pennsylvania and 460 in Vir- terday: Misses Mary Armstrong, Field ginia. North Carolina stands third with Leggett, Mary Johnson, Rae Williams, 322. Only five other states have over 200 Hattle Snedaker and Messrs. D.C. Cougheach, 256 in Ohio, 248 in New York, 216 lin, Nate and Ed Wiles and Dr. Palmer, in Georgia, 210 in Texas and 200 in Ken- They drove up in Mr. Coughlin's wagtucky. Alaska has only 1 and Rhode onette and seemed to be enjoying them

ONE CENT.

FACTS ABOUT THE POSTAL LAWS

"Dont's" That Will Save Letter-Writers a Heap of Trouble.

Don't mail any letter until you are sure that it is completely and properly addressed Don't place the address so that there will be no room for the post-mark.

Don't fail, in the hurry of business, to write the name of the state you intend and not your own-a very common error.

Don't fail to make certain that your manner of writing the name of an office or state may not cause it to be mistaken for one similar in appearance. It is often better to write the name of the state in full.

Don't fail, if you are in doubt as to the right name of the office for which your letter is intended, to consult the Postal Guide, which any Postmaster will be pleased to show you. Don't fail to give the street and house number of the person for whom mail matter is intended in addressing it to a city or large

Don't mail any letter until you are sure that it is properly stamped.

Don't fail to place the stamp in the upper right hand corner Don't write on the envelope "In haste,"
"Care of Postmaster," etc.; it does no good,
and tends to confusion in the rapid handling

Don't fail to bear in mind that it is unlawful to inclose matter of a higher class in one that is lower; e, g, merchandise in news-

Don't mail any letter unless your address, with a request to return, is upon the face of the envelope; so that in case of non-delivery it will be returned directly to you.

Don't fail to give your correspondents your full address, so that a new postman cannot fail to find you.

Don't fail to notify your Postmaster of any change in your address.

Don't trust to the fact that you are an "old resident," "well-known citizen," etc., but have your letter addressed in full. Don't fail, if you intend to be away from home for any length of time, to inform your Postmaster what disposition shall be made of your mail. Don't delay the delivery of any mail matter that you may take out for another.

Dm't fail to sign your letters in full, so that if they reach the Dead Letter Office they may be promptly returned. Don't, when you fail to receive an expected letter, charge the postal service with its loss until you have learned from your correspondent all the facts in regard to its mailing, contents, etc. Don't forget that postage on drop letters is now two cents—just the same to send them across the street as it is to send them across the continent.

Dun't ask any one connected with the Post-office to address a letter for you, or to affix the stamps, or to seal it.

Don't ask a letter carrier to take your mail to the Postoffice unless the postage is paid on it by stamps. He is not allowed to accept oney to pay for the stamps. Don't ask any one connected with the Postoffice to fill up an application for a Don't present your letters for registration until you have placed the contents therein, sealed it, had it weighed and put the necessary postage on it, and have written your name and Postoffice address in full across the end of the envelope. Don't mail a parcel without previously weigh-ing it to ascertain the proper amount of post-

Don't wrap a parcel in such manner that the wrapper may become separated from the

Don't seal or wrap parcels in such manner that their contents may not be easily examined. Don't mail parcels to foreign countries with out special inquiry concerning the regula-tions governing foreign addressed mail-

Don't attempt to send merchandise to foreign countries, other than Canada and Mexico, in execution of an order or as gifts, unless the postage is prepaid at five cents per half

Dem't attempt to send merchandise to foreign countries by "Parcels Post," unless your Postmaster be consulted concerning the country addressed and the manner of mail-ing matter thereto. Don't fail to put the address of the sender on each parcel before mailing. This to facili-tate a return to the sender in the event of

Don't expect to remember all these things after reading them once, but cut them out and post them up for future reference.

LIST OF ADVERTISED LETTERS. Below is a list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Maysville Postoffice for the week ending June 21st, 1892

Hamlin, Mr. Hall, Lizzia Jones, C. L. Johnson, Percy Jones, Blanche Maroney, Willia

ending June 21st, 1882:
Ammer, Mrs. Hattie
Alexander, William
Bracken, Maggie
Browndie, Annie
Barnes, Mrs. Irene
Bantley, J. H. B.
Clark, Mrs. Emily E.
Clark, Lizzie (2)
Carlisle, Marie
Carr, Mrs. Mary E.
Darnall, Anna
Dyre, Albert
Evans, Mrs. Annie M.
Ewing, Mrs. Barbara
Flue, Annie
Green, Mrs. Manda
Gifford, Lucy
Goodpaster, Mrs. N.
Huffman, Mrs. Lucy
Huber, Mrs. Ida
Hutt, Salile Celia
Huts, Mrs. Lee

13 One cent due ou

Maroney, Willi Marshall, Cora Martin, Annie Neal, Callie Pointes, Henry Parker, James Parker, Martie Rugies, Akes Roth, Andrew Smith, Lizzie Smith, Lizzle Shepard, Annie Stewart, David Tranguett, Tom Winford, Rosa White, Mrs. Charley Williams, Charley Wilt, Mrs. H. J. Warner, Carrie

One cent due on each of above. Persons calling for these letters will pl say that they are advertised. THOMAS A. DAVIS, Postmo

THERE is another rise at Pittsburgh and head-waters, and that assures more good boating. There is no saying how much longer navigation can be continued on the upper Ohio, and the cry about low water is apparently premature.